PREFACE

In 1973, a letter arrived from Irving, TX, addressed to the Postmaster, Tillson, NY, asking about the Tillson family. Knowing that Kenneth Clark is a Tillson descendant, the Postmaster handed it to Kenneth. After a search, he found another Tillson who had the Mercer V. Tilson "Tilson" of 1911.

The enthusiasm this aroused led Kenneth to call a Tillson reunion in August 1974. There were some forty people present, Tillsons and spouse. So many were interested in the "Tilson" that a Committee was appointed, and through their efforts, money was advanced to reprint the genealogy. This was accomplished in 1975.

Both the genealogy and the reunion were so well received that the reunions have continued, at Tillson, NY, with growing attendance. In 1975 it was decided to attempt a supplement to the 1911 "Tilson", to be called "Tilson-Tillson" using both spellings. The same non-profit Committee has worked to gather as many descendants as could be found of Edmond Tilson, and wife Joanne (---), who appear in Plymouth, MA records in 1638.

The supplement has now grown to a good size for a book. We offer it to you with love and a sense of accomplishment, knowing full well it could be improved. We regret omissions, but records were not made available. We hope additional data will be submitted so our records may be complete and current. Perhaps at a future date a second supplement will be undertaken.

Two corrections for the 1911 "Tilson" by Mercer V. Tilson have also been brought to our attention.

P. 152 item 1072 JESSE E. TILSON, correct b. date 1 June 1835. See item 1072 page 149.

P. 457, 4th line, ALETHA DORRICE TILLSON, corrected b. date 3 January 1904.

INTRODUCTION

The "Tilson-Tillson" Genealogy has been arranged in four sections:

1) The descendants of William (5th gen. from Edmond, the immigrant ancestor) and his wife, Mary Ransom.
2) The descendants of Stephen (5th gen.) and his wife, Hopestill Shaw.
3) The descendants of Timothy (5th gen.) and his first wife, Silence Whiting.
4) The descendants of Isaiah (5th gen.) and his wife, Phoebe Crocker.

Because the work has been done during the Bicentennial, there is included what can be learned about the Revolutionary ancestors. They are dealt with in the appropriate sections.

The question of the two spellings, Tilson or Tillson, comes up often, and there is no answer to "Why". Research of the Timothy line shows that it varied among his descendants, changing in one line from one l to two l's and back again. The Stephen line seems to have used two l's for many generations, and research of old wills in Otsego Co., NY would prove just when two l's was adopted. The Isaiah line has used two l's since the 1850's. The William line has never varied from one l.

Abbreviations used:

b.	- born	b.c.	-birth cert.
m.	-married	m.c.	-marriage cert.
d.	-died	B.r.	-Bible record
div.	-divorced	nfr	-no further record
dy	-died young	sup. fam.	- supplemental families, in back of book.
bur.	-buried
GS	-gravestone cemetery given

Each individual entered in the Tilson-Tillson is linked somewhere in his ascendancy (the names in parentheses) to a person in the 1911 "Tilson" by Mercer V. Tilson. The page and number are given, to enable a reader to readily find his ancestors in "Tilson". Where the surname has changed from Tilson, the surname is given in the ascendancy until it becomes Tilson, then dropped for brevity. Where a letter appears after a persons number, it indicates, in the early generations, that the child was born after the author of "Tilson" covered that line. In the later generations, it indicates that information was provided just in time to make this book.

A reader who finds "Elizabeth & Moses" 7, in his ascendancy will know that Elizabeth 7, was the dau. of Timothy Jr., who married her own cousin, Moses 7, who was the son of Job. Both were grandchildren of Timothy 5.

At the back of the book are pages devoted to supplemental families, to help a reader who is climbing the family tree.

Those errors in "Tilson" of 1911, which have been brought to our attention, are corrected in ERRATA, at the back of the book. Additional information about persons in "Tilson" whose children are all listed there is given in ADDENDA. This includes death date, etc.

If errors are found in "Tilson-Tillson", please contact us at once, so we may issue a correction. Please keep sending information about YOUR family, so a running record may be kept.

We are grateful to the many people who assembled whole branches of the family. A debt of gratitude is owed Mary-Grace Flanagan who did the final typing, a monumental job!

My correspondents are accustomed to a post-script, so --

PS: Where there are two death dates in a paragraph, the first applies to the spouse, the second to the numbered Tilson descendant. We have tried to clarify this confusion by using ( ) around the spouse dates. Where it is not so done, please re-read, with attention, in order to solve the problem.

DAVENPORT

This information drawn from "Thomas Davenport and His Descendants", pub. by Putnam Co. (NY) Hist. Soc., Cold Spring, NY, 1962. Lib. Cong. 62-20892.

The book refers to Amzi Benedict Davenport's book on the forbears of Rev. John Davenport of New Haven, CT. The English line of Davenports goes back to 1089, when surnames came to use. The name is still common in Cheshire, England. There is no proven connection between Thomas Davenport and "The" Rev. John.

Established facts show that JOHN DAVENPORT 1, and wife MARY (---) came to America in 1670 (p XXI intro.), with four children, leaving their eldest son in England. They settled on Long Neck near New Rochelle, NY.

THOMAS DAVENPORT 2, b. 1682, d. 30 Dec. 1750. Between 1714 and 1732 he settled on "Water Lot No. 2", as tenant of Adolph Philipse in the South Precinct of Dutchess Co., NY (p. XXI). His 1st wife is believed to be Sarah Leggett and his children were 12 in number.

THOMAS DAVENPORT 3, son of Thomas Davenport and perhaps Sarah Leggett, b. ca 1716, d. after 29 Sept. 1797, the date of his will, which names wife Elizabeth. Their children numbered 10, possibly eleven.

JOHN DAVENPORT 4, son of Thomas and Elizabeth Mekeel Davenport, b. Phillipstown (Dut. Co.) NY ca 1750, m. 12 Aug. 1773 ELIZABETH MEKELL (see p. 149). Their children were 8 or 9, Isaac being the 5th.

ISAAC DAVENPORT 5, bpt. New Hurley Ref. Ch., m. 3 July 1810 (see p. 150) REBECKAH MUNSON, dau. of Joseph and Joanna Munson; m. by Rev. Moses Frolich, Shawangunk Ref. Ch. Their children were 9, Thomas H. being 3rd.

THOMAS H. DAVENPORT 6, b. 1814; m. NAOMI H. MINARD, res. Twn. of Esopus, Ulster Co., NY. Children 5.

SARAH E. DAVENPORT 7, so named on her marriage cert., 24 Nov. 1860, Stone Ridge, NY by Rev. Uriah Messiter, prob. Meth. Ch. She was b. Twn of Ovid, Seneca Co., NY. 13 Apr. 1842, d. Walden, NY 27 June 1939. She m. Ananias Tillson 4879 p. 417 "Tilson".

HAMBLIN

Also spelled Hamlin, Hamline, Hamlin, Hamblin, Hamlen and Hamblen.
See ANN HAMBLEN wife of John Tilson, item 4494 p. 389, "Tilson".

This information drawn from "The Amos Otis Papers" orig. pub. in the Barnstable Patriot, later revised by C. F. Swift. Found at Sturgis Library, Barnstable MA, Aug. 1975.

"Israel Hamblem resided in East Parish. His house stood by a pond in Dimmock's Lane about 1 1/2 miles south of County Road. His nearest neighbor was 1/2 mile distant. He cleared away only a small space in the forrest, now again covered with trees. He lived in a solitary spot and farming cound not have been his principal occupation. He is called "Mr." on the records which shows a man of some note". Also: "Goodman Hamblen was not much in public life. He was an honest man, a good neighbor and a sincere Christian, he was industrious and prudent in his habits and brought up his children to walk in his footsteps. His descendants have, with few exceptions, inherited the good qualities of the ancestor."

From the "Barnstable Record", also at Sturgis Library. "The first Hamblen, James, came to this country in 1634, probably arriving in Boston on a ship called the "Griffin". By 1639, he had come to Barnstable as an independant family, but Pastor Lathrop and some of his "Flock" arrived about the same time. Barnstable was then part of Plimouth Colony. In 1834 James Hamlene was on the record." James had a son Israel, b. 1652. Israel m. Abigail (---) who d. about 1700. Israel m. (2) Jemima (---). Their daughter, Ann, was b. 10 Apr. 1706. The record then says "to East Church 1728; m. Mr. Tilson. 1750 removed to Middleboro". (John Tilson, 4494 p. 389 "Tilson").

A condensed Hamlin Family genealogy at Sturgis Library by H. F. Andrews, 1894, gives a long history, tracing the family back to England, and to the continent, and gives a coat of arms.
